SJ TRACKMEN ROLL OVER COP; RECORDS FALL

By WILBUR AGEE

San Jose's track team rolled over College of Pacific Saturday afternoon on the Tiger oval amassing 103 points while the home team was picking up 28. The Spartans won 11 first places in the meet, which established 10 meet records and one school record.

Highlight of the meet was Woody Linn's mark of 156 feet 2 inches in the discus, which bettered the old mark by almost nine feet. San Jose's other platter tossers, Ray Overhouse and Grant Denmark, also bettered the old record to sweep the event for the fifth straight time in dual meet competition. Overhouse posted a mark of 152 feet 1 inch and Denmark tossed it 151 feet 6 inches.

George Ker, who won the shot put over Linn and Tom Higgins, tossed the platter 151 feet 4 inches. Other Tigers victors were Bob Heck, Stan McVicker and Ray Kring. Heck nosed out Don Smalley in the century with Steve O'Meara taking a third. Time was 9.8 seconds. McVicker won the 440 yard run after Fred Mangini was disqualified for jumping the gun twice. Bib Nash took second for San Jose in the quarter. Kring as expected, won the pole vault at 13 feet 5 1-8 inches with Howard Overhouse and Tom Lorenzen finishing in that order.

Bob Likins got off his best throw of the year as San Jose swept the javelin throw. Likins tossed the spear 201 feet 7 inches. Elwood Clark and Bob Erhman completed the sweep.

Smalley came back to beat Heck in the 220 in 22.1 seconds. Bob Bingham took third. Tom Bingham surprised in the 120 yard high hurdles as he turned in a 15.1 mark to beat both Jack and Bill Passey for San Jose's second sweep of the day. The Spartans swept the high jump when Connie Varneck, Ivan Robinson and Junior Morgan all tied with a mark of 5 feet 11 3/4 inches.

Murray Collins and Gene Haynes ran a dead heat to win the mile. Merle Knox nosed out Haynes at the tape to win the two mile.

Thelno Knowles turned in a 1:56 in the 880 with Collins coping second.

Erhman and Birmingham took one-two in the broad jump. Billy Rhyne and Bill Schemmel ran one-two in the 220 yard low hurdles.

Sr. Council Meets In Little Theater

Senior Council meeting will be held tomorrow at 11:30 in the Little Theater. According to President George Millas, a discussion will be held at this time on the senior sneak, overnight, and the class yearbook.

Glenn Gray and his Casa Loma orchestra will play for the Senior Ball, June 14, at the Gold Room of the Palace hotel, San Francisco. The sale of bids will be limited to all members of the senior class, not just the June graduates, announced Millas. "Seniors may invite members of any class, and if they desire to ask a non-college student that is also permissible," Millas stated in an effort to clarify a note he received from a senior who thought the ball was open to seniors only.

"Orders for personal cards may still be made by members of the class in the Business office," Personal Card Chairman Gwen Friesen announced. "Deadline for all orders is Thursday, May 8."

SPARTAN GOLFERS IN DOUBLE WIN

A visit to Ann Arbor, Michigan and the NCAA golf tourney this summer loomed bright on the horizon for Spartan golfers after their double week-end wins over St. Mary's and Stanford.

Coach Bill Hubbard's squad coasted by the Galloping Gaels at the San Jose country club Friday afternoon 26 1/2 to 1/2 and on Saturday turned back the Indians at Palo Alto 15 to 12.

The victory over Stanford evened up the series between the two schools at one win apiece. San Jose may get a chance to play it off if both teams enter the NCAA scheduled for June in Michigan.

Definite underdogs on the long Stanford course, the Spartans came through wins by Eli Bariteau, Morgan Fottrell, Howard Verutti, and Ross Smith in the singles, and victories by Bobby Harris and Smith, and Warren MacCarty and Verutti in the doubles matches.

Spartan golfers now hold wins over California, Stanford, St. Mary's (2) and Salinas J.C. Their lone defeat was at the hands of Stanford last week.

Stanford currently holds the NCAA title and has dominated Pacific Coast intercollegiate golfing circles for the past ten years.

Dons Beat Spartans In Close Ball Game

By TOM ROWEN

With the bases loaded and none out in the ninth, Tom Page, Don relief pitcher, stopped a Spartan rally to give USF a 7-6 victory at the Don's field in San Francisco. This evened the series at one game apiece as San Jose had won the first game earlier in the season.

Thursday, the Spartans play Cal Poly in a doubleheader at the stadium and on Saturday, they battle Fresno State in another twin bill. San Jose will have to win these four games as San Diego State won a doubleheader from Santa Barbara on Friday to increase their lead to 11 wins and one defeat in the CCAA.

The Spartans took the lead in the first inning by scoring one run but USF scored two runs in the third to go out in front. San Jose produced two runs on a walk and two hits in the fifth to take the lead again but the Dons tied the ball game up in their half of the fifth by scoring one run.

Jack Shields who started on the mound for USF doubled in the sixth to start off a Don rally which resulted in two runs for USF. They scored two more in the seventh to make the score 7-3.

Jim Wilson, Spartan catcher, drove a fast ball over the center field fence in the eighth for another Spartan run. San Jose started a rally in the ninth and scored two runs off of Shields. Page came in and struck out Al Malato. Jack Burtner hit to the third baseman who threw Ralph Kling out at the plate and Wilson was out on a called third strike to end the ball game.

TICKETS FOR 'THE ASSASSIN' ON SALE IN ARCH

Members of the San Jose Players will sell tickets for "The Assassin" today at a special booth in the Library arch, according to Miss Helen Mineta, Speech department secretary.

The play, under the direction of Dr. James Clancy, will open Thursday night and will run through May 5, including a Sunday night performance. All seats are reserved. Tickets sell for 60 cents, student price, and 90 cents, general admission.

San Jose Players is the Speech department's honorary drama society. Members are working with the department this quarter in publicizing "The Assassin" and conducting the ticket booth.

The plot of "The Assassin" deals with the French underground movement in Africa during World War II, and the assassination of Admiral Darlan, known in the play as Admiral Vespary. Love interest is supplied by Stella Pinoris and Ed Williams who portray Helene Mariotte and Robert de Mauny. Vespary, played by John Ickes, is killed by de Mauny.

John Calderwood as Vauquin, leads the underground activities with his wife, played by Roxana Hildreth. The innocent bystander who wanders through the play in search of a little Vermont is Paul Gormley who plays Monsieur Popinot.

Tickets still will be sold at the Speech office as well as at the Library booth. Anyone buying student tickets must bring a student body card for every student ticket he buys, according to Miss Mineta.

Joan Thornley Queen Of Prom

Miss Joan Thornley, freshman home economics major was chosen as Queen of the Junior Prom at that annual college affair held at the Palomar Ballroom on Friday evening.

As Queen of the Prom, pretty brunette Miss Thornley was presented with a complete wardrobe as a gift from various San Jose department stores and apparel shops.

The Queen and her two attendants, Miss Yvonne Bigley, senior art major, and Miss Faye Sillicito, freshman commercial art major, were chosen for their poise and personality by three prominent San Joseans who acted as judges for the event.

Fontes, Andersen Feted Tonight

Bob Andersen and Wayne Fontes, San Jose State college's two finalists in the NCAA boxing tournament, will be honored at the regular meeting of the San Jose Sportster's club in Dunne hall at the Civic auditorium tonight.

Andersen will receive a trophy as the best athlete of the month and Fontes will be honored as the outstanding member of the Spartan boxing team. The meeting is open to students.

GROUP PICTURES FOR SPARDI GRAS TAKEN TONIGHT

Ed Kincaid, business manager for Spardi Gras, yesterday released a schedule for the taking of pictures for the Spardi Gras program.

According to Kincaid, the schedule will be strictly adhered to and no postponements of appointments will be possible. The program must go to the printers as soon as possible if it is to be out in time for the campus festival.

Following is the organizational schedule for this week. Each organization will send its representatives who are to appear in the program picture to the Publications office at the appointed time. Those having their pictures taken will appear in the costume or attire (Continued on Page 3)

Symphonic Band Plays Tomorrow

More than seventy-five musicians will take part in the Symphonic band concert tomorrow evening in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 8:15.

Under the direction of Forrest Baird of the Music department, the group will present a program of music especially written for a Symphonic band. Usually the music played in such concerts is taken from compositions originally written for orchestra, according to Mr. Baird.

Among the selections on the program will be compositions by: Paul Fauchet, Franz Schubert, Samuel Coleridge-Taylor, Donald Whitehead, and Gustav Holst.

The majority of the instruments heard will be the twenty-seven clarinets in the band. Mr. Thomas Eagan of the music faculty will play with the second and third clarinets and Mrs. Eagan will play the English horn.

Northwest Bell Co. Makes $2.50 Offer

WASHINGTON, April 27. (UP)—The hopes of Federal conciliators for an early end to the three-week old telephone strike brightened tonight when the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. offered its 16,000 striking employees a wage increase of $2.50 a week.

Already optimistic over the prospects of settling the walk-out, conciliators said privately that they were encouraged by the Bell System's abandonment of its adamant refusal to make a counter-wage-offer.

"It shows that they have abandoned the no-offer-principle," one said. "It opens the door to a real negotiation of the wage issue."

The Northwestern Bell Telephone company's offer—the first made by any Bell company since the start of the strike—was made at St. Paul, Minn. The union is scheduled to give its answer tomorrow.

Conciliation Director Edgar L. Warren and other government conciliators withheld official comment, however, pending final settlement of the Northwestern negotiations.

APPLICATIONS FILED FOR TWO OF FOUR OFFICES

Only five applications for Associated Student Body executive offices were on file as of Friday, according to Tom Wall, chairman of the nominations committee.

"Students may turn in applications at the Business office until 11:30 today," said Wall. "Of those filed, four are candidates for president and one for secretary."

A nominations assembly will be held at 12:30 today in the Morris Dailey auditorium. Nominators must be on the platform during the assembly, and candidates are allowed a two minute acceptance speech at this time.

To qualify for office, candidates must be in junior standing with a clear record, not on probation or special students.

Wall reminds those running for office that advertising may not be displayed except during the last 56 hours preceding the election. Posters and signs are restricted to the areas specified in the constitution.

A maximum of 40 inches may be available in the Spartan Daily for any single campaign. Violations of any election rules set up in the constitution will be called to the Student Court for penalty.

Election date is set for Friday, May 2.

State ROTC Unit Wins Approval

Notification was received Friday by President T. W. MacQuarrie that the War department has approved San Jose State college's application for the establishment of a Military Police ROTC unit on this campus.

In a letter from Acting Chief of Staff Col. S. J. Grogan, the War department said that steps have been taken to obtain military personnel to conduct the program of instruction at San Jose State, starting with the 1947-48 year.

Col. Grogan stated that Dr. MacQuarrie will have full authority over the approval of personnel being assigned to this unit.

Army Officers Speak Here

Colonel Murray A. Bywater, of the Research and Development of the Army Air Forces, and Lt. Colonel J. D. Bell, of the Office of Quartermaster General, on an Officer Procurement tour, spoke to a group of students in room S210 Friday.

Col. Bell outlined the ten year Integration program which the Army has opened up to college graduates, and Colonel Bywater explained the different methods of gaining or regaining commissions in the regular army or the reserve corp.

The Army Air Corp Cadet training program will be opened May 1 to civilians, between the ages of 18 and 26, unmarried, and with one-half the credits leading to a degree, according to Col. Bywater.

An examining board will be here May 5, 6, and 7 to process former officers who will graduate in June of this year.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—(UP)—San Francisco police tonight announced that Homer Richie, 25, and George Heiser, 30, two of the four mentally deranged prisoners who escaped from Letterman Hospital early this morning, have been captured in a Stockton, Cal., hotel room.

KROUSKUP, ALL-CCAA SECOND BASEMAN, RECALLS DAYS PAST

By TOM ROWEN

"It was in 1941 that we went to junior college, wasn't it, Tom?" Wayne Krouskup, Spartan second baseman, remarked, as we had the empty dugout to ourselves, while the rest of the team was in the clubhouse resting between games of the COP double-header last week.

"San Bernardino JC had the fat boy from Milwaukee throwing, and I was playing second, but if you remember, I started out in the outfield."

Only six years ago and Wayne is still going strong. Last year, he made All-CCAA at the key-stone sack and is holding down the same spot on this year's Spartan ball team. However, there was an interlude of four years in the Army Air Corps, serving in Europe as a lieutenant.

Wayne met that San Bernardino pitcher again recently. He ran into him at Edwards Field when the Spartans played the University of California. He hadn't done any pitching since 1942, when he was on the mound for the Golden Bears, and there was Krouskup out there at second base for San Jose State.

Wayne is a native of San Bernardino, and played baseball in high school before going to college. He is a senior and is majoring in commerce. His brother, Don, also is attending State.

The Spartan ballplayers started to file back into the dugout, and it was time for me to start back to the pressbox at the stadium, but it had been fun reminiscing with an old friend.

Knothole Gang Supervises Work On Roos Building

By ABNER FRITZ

"Members of the local Sidewalk Superintendents' association became alarmed when they saw the high board fences going up," states Mr. Jack Wright, managing editor of the Evening News.

In addition to his newspaper affiliations, Mr. Wright also is chairman of the local chapter of the Sidewalk Superintendents' association of America, main headquarters of which is in New York. "However, members of the association were greatly relieved when they saw that holes were being cut in the fences," Mr. Wright continues. "These apertures are enabling the members to supervise the construction of the building and see that everything goes along in proper fashion."

The current scene of interest is at First and Santa Clara streets where Roos Brothers is building a new store. On the Santa Clara street-side several spots have been reserved.

One, a few feet from the ground, is for "short lookers," another at medium height is reserved for "good lookers" (and always is surrounded by a waiting line), and a third slot is cut almost six and a half feet from the ground and is set aside for "long lookers."

At present the excavating work is under way, but according to reliable sources (the guy who swings a pick on square 14), things are going to start coming up any day now.

Hostesses Needed

Women are needed to serve as hostesses at the local Service Men's club, according to Beverly Bigger, hostess chairman.

At present many San Jose State women are volunteering their services, but there are openings on Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings from 7:45 to 11. The club is on Market and Santa Clara streets and was formerly the USO hut.

Women interested in being hostesses may obtain further information in the Dean of Women's office.

THRUST and PARRY

Greece Aid Opposed

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I invite responsible citizens to write the representatives and the state department of our country, as well as Mr. Truman, opposing the proposal of military and financial aid to Greece and Turkey, for these reasons:

1. The proposal is not for relief of two needy countries but for using those countries as a possible scene for friction in a battle of diplomacy now raging between the US and the USSR.

2. The situation is complicated—USSR wants control of the Dardanelles—which even Russia has wanted for 200 years—the US sees Russian expansion in that direction not so much a threat to democratic interests but a threat to the oil supply of the Azerbaijan-Iranian area, from which some of our citizens are profiting.

3. The logic of taking the question to the UN and applying a mandate to the Dardanelles specifying free passage to all is completely stifled. As a matter of fact, President Truman completely avoided any mention of the subject to Lake Success. Passage of such a bill would cut the last shred of hope from UN at the crucial time that an international mandate system and conciliation framework were most needed.

4. If this bill passes, vitally needed expansion of the relief program for truly needy peoples of the war devastated countries will not be available (the proposed appropriation to Greece and Turkey is 400 million dollars; all other relief appropriations—350 million dollars.)

5. If this proposal is passed, a clever arrangement will have taken place, giving the brass band their biggest talking point for Universal Military training which will weaken the last vestiges of UN prestige. As it happens, the vote on this proposal is expected in the coming week, while the committee to study NMT is to make its report later in the month or the first of next. Thus, the two will coincide in making the US the number one imperialistic and militaristic power. Some people think this would be good!

GRIDDERS START PRACTICE TODAY

Spring football practice officially begins this afternoon, announces head Football Coach Bill Hubbard. New candidates to the 1947 squad have been working out in short scrimmages during the past week.

"There are some 68 new candidates for the team," said Line Coach Bob Bronzan. According to Bronzan, several of the new men are showing up nicely. In the line positions Bronzan named: Don Karnagel, tackle; Dick Voris, center; "Chuck" Storey, tackle; Jack Galvin, end; Keith San Filippo, end; and Harley Dow, end, as those showing great possibilities to date.

In the backfield: Marvin Johnson, right-half; Jack Donaldson, fullback; Vico Bondietti, fullback; and Vince Sempronio, left half were named as promising men.

Spartan Stadium will be the scene of practice for the gridders.

NETMEN DROPPED FROM TOURNAMENT

With Straight Clark, ace Southern California tennis star paving the way, the Trojans eliminated Coach Ted Mumby's netmen in the first round of the Ojai tennis tourney held at Ojai, California, last Thursday afternoon.

Dave Parnay won the only match against the Santa Barbara Gauchos, who trounced the Spartan netmen 5-1 Wednesday afternoon. Other Spartans who participated in last week's southland invasion were: Captain Gene Franco, Don McKenzie, and Greg Sargent.
